REVIEW OF MARKETS

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Stocks, Money, Exchange, Bonds, Grain, Cotton, Provisions, Etc.

New York, October 31.—Prices of stocks fell at the opening to-day under the weight of selling for London account. The market at that center was in a state of semi-demoralization on the news of the loss of a considerable force of British troops by capture from Ladysmith. The sales for foreign account in New York ran up to nearly fifty thousand shares. The result in loss in prices reached a point or more in several prominent stocks, notably among them Southern railroads, which have been recent favorites for a rise.

The experience of yesterday left no one disposed to buy stocks and the London offerings were poorly taken. Active selling of some of the prominent stocks added to the weakness. After the opening decline, however, some support was forthcoming which seemed to be based on the hope of a relaxation in the money stringency, but the quotations for money at 20 and 25 per cent. again turned prices downward. The speculative liquidation seemed to be concentrated about noon and there was some recuperation during the latter part of the day, which was encouraged by strong spots in the list.

The iron and steel stocks became especially prominent, led by Federal Steel.

The strength in this group was attributed to a demand from selection and there was the strength in this group was attributed to a demand from selection.

pecially prominent, led by Federal Steel.

The strength in this group was attributed to a demand from a large outstanding short interest. The rise in Federal Steel reached 5½ and in Steel and Wire 3½.

There were sympathetic advances in National Steel, American Tin Plate, American Smelting and other iron and steel shares, running from a fraction to 2½, the latter National Steel. There was a good covering demand for a number of other prominent specialties and the railways, especially those in the Southern group, retrieved a good part of their early losses. The Wisconsin Central new stocks were conspicuous for an advance of about 1½ above last alght's level.

The market closed firm, generally at grapil not losses. The market closed firm, generally at small net losses.

The call money was very feverish all day, receding several times but recovering violently and suddenly. The last loan was at 6 per cent, the low level, and the rate ranged above that to 30 per cent, the demand being apparently urgent and large. Loans were called by the banks on an extensive scale. The demand for time money was good and lenders demanded 6 per cent, on choice collateral. The extension in soans is attributed to the 1st of November settlement and also for payment of subscriptions to some new industrial combinations. The rate for sterling exchange declined further in response to the stiff money rate and without regard to the hardening of the money market in Levikania. change declined further in response to the stiff money rate and without regard to the hardening of the money market in London. New York exchange at some Southern points weakened sharply and the subtreasury was a creditor at the Clearing House to-day
by the extent of $126,000.

The tone of the bond market was better than that of stocks and a number of middle and-low grade mortgages were in good demand. Total sales, par value, $1,970,000.

United tSales bonds were unchanged
in bid prices.
